The Pub and its facilities

The White Hart occupies a highly prominent position in the heart of the village of Sibsey, benefitting from strong local support alongside valuable passing trade due to its kerbside frontage on a busy trunk road.

The entrance opens into a welcoming, open-plan bar area, complemented by a comfortable lounge featuring a cosy wood-burning stove. To the rear of the property is additional space currently used as a games room, which offers excellent potential to be converted into a dining area with approximately 20 covers. Externally, the pub benefits from ample customer parking to the rear, a well-proportioned courtyard, and an additional grassed seating area. Together, these create an attractive and sunny outdoor trading space ideal for warmer months. The White Hart is the only public house within a three-mile radius, giving it a strong and well-established trading position. With a substantial refurbishment programme planned, this presents an exciting opportunity for a new operator to put their own stamp on a village pub with significant potential.

The refurbishment plans – Including mood board

The planned refurbishment will return the White Hart to its former glory; a traditional, English village pub and community hub. A refreshed externally decorative street frontage. Internal timber panelling and an improved bar counter as the focal point with attractive banks of hand pulls. A real fireplace for cosiness and atmosphere in the colder months and a stylish beer garden for the Summer. Nooks and snugs with quirky alcoves and stylish décor including vintage brewery and beer artworks with hand painted Lincolnshire themed words of wisdom. A well-appointed kitchen with a takeaway servery window and a range of dining areas within.

Neighbourhood

The White Hart is a standout traditional English pub in the thriving village of Sibsey, perfectly positioned just four miles north of Boston on the busy A16. With an impressive flow of nearly 1,200 vehicles passing every hour, it enjoys exceptional visibility and constant exposure to both local traffic and the steady stream of visitors travelling to and from the popular seaside destination of Skegness — creating outstanding potential for strong food and drink-led trade.

Adding to its appeal, the pub sits just a short stroll from the iconic Grade II listed Sibsey Trader Windmill, a much-loved local landmark currently undergoing major refurbishment that is set to attract even greater visitor numbers to the area.

The future for Sibsey is equally bright. The village is continuing to expand, with several new residential developments bringing a growing population and an ever-strengthening local customer base. Positioned directly opposite the village primary school and within easy reach of several secondary schools, the White Hart is ideally placed at the heart of the community perfectly suited to become the go-to destination for families, locals, and passing trade alike. Combining character, location, visibility, and exciting growth potential, the White Hart offers a rare opportunity to build a highly successful and vibrant village pub business.
